ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

Burglars Attempt to Effect an Entrance into Hollis' Store.

Tuesday night burglars attempted to force an entrance into C. W. Hollis' General Merchandise store in this city by tearing a hole in the brick wall at the rear end of the building. The Packer reporter called around to investigate the affair and Mr. Fred Rosenzweig escorted him out the rear door, on the west side of which a hole about three feet in diameter had been made and the brick and mortar was strewn over the ground. The burglars had undoubtedly been frightened away, as there was only one layer of brick between them and the inside of the building when they ceased operation. Ed Taft, who sleeps in J. Bloch's store came down 3rd street about 12 o'clock and when he passed the alley that runs back of Hollis' store he saw a man standing by a pile of wood. Undoubtedly this was one of the gang, and thinking Taft to be the night watch, gave warning to his pals, who took flight, leaving behind a lot of tools.

Wednesday morning Dan McEachern, the Weston blacksmith, came over in search of tools that had been stolen from his shop over there, and identified those which the burglars had left behind as his property. Officers are after the parties who are probably tramps who have been in this vicinity for the past week.

A Terrible Accident.

Capt. N. B. Humphrey, who is well known all over Umatilla county, met with a distressing accident at Meacham Wednesday, says the Pendleton Tribune, which resulted in the amputation of a limb. He had been at Meacham as orator on the Fourth of July, and in attempting to board the train for Pendleton which passed there yesterday about noon, slipped and fell under the rear car which caught his foot just above the ankle, mashing it to a jelly, and before the train was brought to a standstill Mr. Humphrey was dragged a distance of about fifty feet, sustaining severe bruises about the head and body. If the train had not been prepared to stop at the station Mr. Humphrey no doubt would have been killed. He was brought to Pendleton and medical aid was summoned. After mature deliberation amputation of the injured limb was decided upon, and yesterday afternoon about four o'clock Dr. J. C. Smith, assisted by Drs. Guyon, Martin, Pilkington and Vincent, amputated the injured limb about four inches above the ankle. The patient withstood the operation with great courage and is getting along nicely. The friends of the sufferer here who are legion are doing all in their power to make him as comfortable as possible and unless some unforeseen difficulty arises Mr. Humphrey will soon be on the highway of recovery.

Cause for Dunning.

The National Labor Tribune, a labor paper, says: Many men think that newspaper men are persistent duffers. By the way of comparison let us suppose a farmer raises one thousand bushels of wheat a year, and sells it to one thousand persons in all parts of the country, a big portion of them saying, "I will hand you a dollar in a short time." The farmer does not want to be small, and says all right. Soon the one thousand bushels are gone, and he has nothing to show for it, and he then realizes that he has fooled away his whole crop, and its value due him in a thousand little dribbles; consequently he is seriously embarrassed in his business, because debtors, each owing him one dollar, treat it as a small matter and think it would not help much. Continue this kind of business year in and year out as the publisher does, how long would he stand it? A moment's thought will convince anyone that a publisher has cause for persistent dunning.

Wants an Explanation.

John Rush, one of the prosperous farmers of the Helix community is town today. He tells us that crop prospects are fair in his section, but that the wheat has been injured to some extent by the cold weather. It is his opinion that the cold rather than the dry weather has damaged the crop.

Mr. Rush, who is a solid Republican, says he has read in the Alliance Herald an article which states that we do not need money to carry on business, but should carry it on by means of exchange of products, and that he cannot understand it thoroughly. He would like the Herald to explain where he can exchange his wheat crop for other commodities needed, what he can exchange to the merchant for goods, or to the sheriff for taxes.

The Gun Club.

The members of the Athena Gun Club met for regular practice yesterday. Some good shooting was done. The score was as follows:

The U. P. Advances a Rate.

At yesterday's meeting of the eastern committee of the Western Passenger association the Union Pacific repeated its offer of $25 for a one fare rate between California Missouri river points as the basing rate to Chicago-Missouri river lines. Roads without St. Paul connections opposed the rate, and if the meeting today refuses the proposition, the Union Pacific is almost certain to make a $25 flat rate between California and Missouri river points.

The Panhandle.

Oregon has a panhandle. It has been discovered at the school land office that the legislature in describing the boundary of Lincoln county, a strip on the west side of the county, between Polk and the Siletz reservation belonging to Tillamook was left out. It was 22 miles long, 4 miles wide at the south end and runs to a point at the north. Tillamook has a handle like a frying pan.

A Singular Wedding Party.

At a marriage in Wisconsin recently the bridegroom stood 6 feet 2 inches and the bride 3 feet 24 inches in height. The officiating clergyman had only one leg. The bride was 50 years old and her grandmother, aged 98 years, attended the wedding feast.

Those Doctors.

A lady named Stahl died suddenly in Pendleton, Sunday. Dr. Smith, the attending physician and the city physician, Dr. Campbell, are, as is usually the case with that profession, at "outs" with each other. Campbell suddenly conceived that it was his unwavering duty as city physician to investigate the case. He went to the residence and made himself so obnoxious that the husband of the deceased was compelled to order him to leave the premises. Dr. Smith upon learning what Campbell had done accosted him on the streets and asked him what he meant by such interference. Words followed and the city physician went home and procuring a revolver came back with blood in his eye, but instead of preproparing Smith went into a cigar store where he was disarmed by an officer, under protest.

Smith demanded an inquest later in the day, owing to Campbell's intimation that death was due to malpractice. A jury was impaneled by Justice Bishop, acting coroner, consisting of G. A. Hartman, H. E. Bickers, Frank Frazer, C. J. Whitaker, R. Sargent, H. McArthur, T. J. Hailey, deputy district attorney, was present for the state, and J. C. Leasure for Dr. Smith. Mr. Stahl, T. J. Millions, Dr. Pruet, Smith and Martin, Mrs. Houtson and Miss Simmons were examined as witnesses, and Drs. Pruet, Guyon, Martin, and Morrow were in attendance. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that death was due to natural causes.

Hell Beats the Mountains.

A wood-hauler the other day said: "The roads to hell have one advantage over those to the mountains. While the former are paved chiefly with good intentions, the latter are not paved with intentions good or bad, nor with anything else."

The mountains are not the only section of the country in which the roads leading to it could be improved greatly to the advantage of the country.

We hear considerable complaint about the condition of the road from the lower end of Main street to the new bridge across Wild Horse. It is claimed that this road is so rough now that a person can scarce drive over it at a rate faster than a walk, and that it will be almost impassable when wheat hauling begins unless something is done to improve it. Our committee on street and improvements should look after the matter.

Commencement Exercises.

The program at St. Andrews Catholic Indian school on the reservation, last Friday was simply grand.

An address of welcome was nicely made by Miss Raineville. This was followed by music, vocal and instrumental, and by a long program, consisting of dialogues, vocal solos, a fan-drill, and a miniature cantata very nicely rendered.

At the close of the program the prizes were distributed by Rev. Father Chianale. Handsome volumes were given as prizes for the department, studies, and other goods works in school. After the principle prizes were distributed every little scholar was given a present and all were happy and smiling.

Masonic Supper.

Those present at the Masonic supper last Saturday night report a very pleasant time. There were present most of the members of Dolph Lodge and their families. After an excellent supper, which consisted of strawberries, ice cream, and cake, the time was spent in a pleasant and social manner until near 12 o'clock when all went home well pleased with the evening's entertainment. The members of this lodge greatly appreciated the supper given them by the ladies and hope they may be so favored again.

Dr. King and the Marshal.

Sunday morning Marshal Stamper went into King & Co's Drug store and became involved in a dispute over money matters with Dr. King. It seems the doctor put an account he had against the marshal in the hands of a collecting agency for collection, and Stamper claims the doctor owes him for services performed in an official capacity. The dispute grew hotter and hotter and culminated by the doctor striking the marshal a terrific blow on the nose, breaking and tearing a hole through the right side of it, and bruising him considerably about face. Mr. Stamper is under the impression that the doctor struck him with a scale weight, and the doctor says he wore the hammer with nothing but his bare knuckles.

In Trouble.

W. H. Beers well known in this city, and ex-marshal of Weston, was arrested at Portland by Deputy Sheriff Hailey and brought up Monday. As near as can be learned Beers is accused of misappropriating city funds that came into his hands while he wore the star, a long sickness having reduced his own finances.
